Investing in Infrastructure Matters event to discuss long-term smart infrastructure funding strategies amid Colorado's post-flood repairs

Event will feature former Pennsylvania Gov. Ed Rendell

WHAT: The Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce, Building America's Future and the American Society of Civil Engineers are co-hosting a policy forum on infrastructure investments, called Investing in Infrastructure Matters, on Thursday, October 24, 2013 from 7:30-9:30 a.m.

The Investing in Infrastructure Matters event serves as an opportunity to discuss a long-term plan of smart infrastructure investments that will grow the economy and enhance the nation's economic competitiveness. As Colorado recovers from one of the worst natural disasters in our history, the recent floods also serve a reminder of our state's aging infrastructure.

WHO: Former Pennsylvania Gov. Ed Rendell with Building America's Future will lead a panel discussion with Colorado's leaders on infrastructure including Don Hunt, executive director of the Colorado Department of Transportation; Tony Milo, executive director of the Colorado Contractors Association; Lone Tree Mayor Jim Gunning, representing the Metro Mayor's Caucus; and Kelly J. Brough, president and CEO of the Denver Metro Chamber.

WHEN: Thursday, October 24, 2013
7:30 – 9:30 a.m.

WHERE: Hyatt Regency Denver at Colorado Convention Center, 650 15th Street, Denver, CO 80202

Tickets are $55 for members; $75 for non-members.
Register at: www.denverchamber.org/infrastructure

Media are welcome to attend.

About the Denver Metro Chamber

For nearly 150 years, the Denver Metro Chamber has been a leading voice for Colorado's business community. With a membership that spans the state and includes 3,000 businesses and their 300,000 employees, the Chamber is an effective advocate for small and large businesses at the local, state and federal levels. Chamber affiliates, the Metro Denver Economic Development Corporation, the Denver Metro Chamber Leadership Foundation, the Denver Metro Small Business Development Center and the Colorado Competitive Council, play a vital role in defining the economic landscape of our state.
